

Core Competence Conference on Knowledge, Skill and Perspective Development
Participants- JSCC- cum- ASCJ-cum GJ and Civil Judges
Venue: Virtual platform-Cisco Webex Meetings

Agenda
FRIDAY, JUNE 19, 2020

Program Opening 11.00 AM- 11.10 AM 11.10AM-11.20 AM	A brief overview of the programme Sh. Vishal Gogne, Additional Director, Delhi Judicial Academy Audience Response Exercise-Online Quiz on Civil Law
Session 1 11.20AM – 1.00 PM	Justice in the Online Paradigm and Challenges in adjudicating civil disputes ShInderjeet Singh Former ADJ ,Sh M.P. Singh ADJ Sh Vishal Gogne, Additional Director DJA In these unprecedented times civil courts in Delhi are walking a tight rope, balancing the safety of citizens and their right to access to justice. The program begins with a focus on the evolving concept of justice and how courts would adjust to the online environment. The speakers would also share best practices and solutions to overcome the impediments in expediting trials.
1.00 PM – 2..45 AM	Lunch Break
Session 2 02.45AM - 4.00 PM	Force Majeure during a pandemic and potential contractual disputes HMJ Sanjeev Narula, Judge, High Court Of Delhi Businesses across the spectrum are presenting actions before courts to determine whether they or with whom they have contracted are discharged from performing their contractual obligations owing to the pandemic. To promote clarity on this technical & niche aspect, our esteemed resource person would throw light on the position of the law governing the invocation of the Force Majeure clause in various types of contracts like government contracts, employment contracts, lease agreements, sale of goods contracts.
04.00 PM – 04.30 PM	Recess
Session 3 04.30PM –05.45 PM	Advancing Therapeutic Justice, Harmonizing Substantial & Procedural Fairness and Interim Injunctions HMJ Rajiv Sahai Endlaw, Judge, High Court of Delhi This session would highlight how besides the final outcome of a dispute, the processes and approach used by courts during trial may also impede or promote the rights of the litigants in several ways. Our esteemed speaker would also guide the participants on developing a good judicial temperament and cultivating public confidence in the judiciary. The practical nuances governing the grant of an exparte or interim injunction would also be elaborated upon by the speaker.

--	--